Dear Parent/carers

We have had yet another very busy week at Park View Community Academy!

Today we held our new celebration assembly, where we gave out our new certificates: reader of the week, writer of the week, mathematician of the week and star of the week.

This week our nursery children started full time and have settled into their new class very well.

In the coming weeks we look forward to welcoming parents/carers into school to find out more about Wise Owl Trust. We will be hosting a drop in for year 6 parents to support them applying for high school places- more information will follow.
